Fast Facts about Allerton and the IMACC Conference

- Allerton House is the site of the IMACC Annual Conference. Built as a private home by Robert Allerton in 1900, it was developed into a conference center in 1946. It is located just west of Monticello, Illinois and is part of the University of Illinois system. More information (including directions) can be found at http://allerton.illinois.edu

- Lodging rooms for the annual IMACC Conference are located in the Main House, the Evergreen Lodge, the Gate House, and the Little House in the Woods. Quarters are assigned on a first-come, first-served basis. There is very limited space for spouses, and the conference is not designed for, nor do the facilities adequately accommodate children.

- There is wireless internet access for all of the first floor, and possibly the entire main house by conference time.

- Conference meals are pre-planned by the Conference Coordinator. Snacks are served throughout the day and evening, and publishers are present with textbooks on display for your perusal. Publishers also usually donate towards our evening social hours. All amenities are included in the registration fee.

- Attire has been somewhere between corporate casual and unkempt. You may want to bring: an umbrella (spring rain, some buildings not connected), hiking shoes, a camera, flashlight (for evening hikes) and your favorite game (social gatherings in the evening center around card games, table tennis, and other activities).

- Friday night after 8 pm is free time, many choose to participate in different competitive activities, and we will even have a grading table. All winnings or “contributions” are generally donated to the IMACC Scholarship Fund.

- There is no evening meal on Thursday night so plan accordingly.

- No matter where you stay off-site, you must make your own reservations. Please, indicate no lodging on your reservation form if you are not staying at Allerton. Questions or concerns regarding conference registration should be directed to Sunil Koswatta at 847-925-6445 or e-mail him at koswatt@harpercollege.edu
